

Please do not compromise the potential for diversity of opinion in the media. I am already finding coverage of the present Coalition/Iraq war frighteningly uniform across the networks. I need the chance of as much objectivity as I can get with media sources unimpeded by commercial interest. Please do not contribute to the repression of independant thinking in this country.